

Church Covenant

We, believing in one God who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit, having repented of sin and trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ alone for eternal salvation, and desiring to walk together before the Lord, do pledge ourselves to the fellowship of the Iden Green Congregational Church.

We are satisfied with the faith and way of conducting church life that pertains in this fellowship and solemnly join ourselves together, submitting ourselves to the discipline of the Gospel and the duties required of Christian people.

1. We promise to live in holiness, humility and brotherly love as is pleasing to God and the church.
2. We promise to watch over one another so as to discourage from disobedience and to "stir up one another to love and good works" with all gentleness.
3. We promise to pray specially for one another and for the glory and increase of this church, and for the presence of God in it, and the pouring out of His Spirit on it, and His protection of it.
4. We promise to bear one another's burdens, to cleave to one another, and to have fellow-feeling with one another in whatever conditions may arise.
5. We promise to bear with one another's weaknesses with much tenderness, not revealing them to others outside or inside the church, except where it is allowed by the Word of God.
6. We promise to work together for the spread of the Gospel, purity of life, and the peace of the church.
7. We promise to meet together on the Lord's days, and at other times, such as God may give opportunity, in order to worship, have fellowship and promote the good of the church.
8. We promise to give according to our ability that the pastor may be provided for and the work of the church maintained.

To these and all other Gospel duties we pledge ourselves that we may perform them relying upon the power and strength given us by Almighty God whose we are, whom we desire to serve, and to whom be glory now and forevermore.
